

NEW HAMPSHIRE SUPREME COURT
INTEREST ON LAWYERS TRUST ACCOUNTS (IOLTA)

AUTHORIZATION TO FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

I acknowledge that Supreme Court Rule 50(1) requires every lawyer maintaining client trust accounts to participate in the Interest on Lawyers Trust Accounts (IOLTA) program unless a written Notice of Declination is submitted to the Clerk of the Supreme Court by August 1 of any year for the period beginning on such August 1 and extending until such declination is revoked. I hereby authorize any financial institution in which I maintain a trust account for clients' funds to automatically, and without further documentation, establish or convert the trust account(s) described below to an interest-bearing IOLTA account subject to the provisions of Supreme Court Rule 50(1).

The financial institution is specifically authorized and directed to remit the interest earned, less customary service fees or charges, to the New Hampshire Bar Foundation. In no case shall bank charges be deducted from principal. The account will show the New Hampshire Bar Foundation, taxpayer identification number (02-0333762), as the recipient of interest. The New Hampshire Bar Foundation and the attorney's name or firm name will be included in the title of the account.

Please list each account separately below. Separate forms should be used for each financial institution.
