

Board of Directors Profile

Richard B. McNamara

Wiggin & Nourie, P.A.

Richard McNamara practices complex civil litigation, general business litigation, defense of legal malpractice claims and complex personal injury actions, both in New Hampshire and nationally. He has been with the firm of Wiggin & Nourie in Manchester since 1979, Commercial Litigation Group.

McNamara also has substantial experience with injury trials in state and federal courts on behalf of plaintiffs and defendants and has defended criminal cases in state and federal courts; he has tried over 60 civil jury trials to verdict and successfully defended a capital murder case, State v. William Gagne, at the request of the New Hampshire Superior Court.

McNamara received his JD degree from Boston College School of Law in 1975 and was admitted to the NH Bar in that same year. He is also admitted to practice in Massachusetts and in several federal trial and appellate courts.

McNamara began his career in the Office of the NH Attorney General and has been an active member of the NHBA holding many offices and serving on many committees. He has also published numerous books and journals. He is Immediate Past President of NH Bar Association.

McNamara joined the New Hampshire Bar Foundation Board of Directors in 2002.